

MAIN TEAM ORGANISATION, STEM & CODING OLYMPIAD GRAND FINALS INDIVIDUAL APPLICATION AND PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT (02-08 JULY 2026 / ROME - ITALY)

This agreement must be digitally approved by the accompanying adult via the provided link. Moreover, signing this agreement and returning it by email is not required.

These conditions set out the terms of this agreement between accompanying adults (on behalf of students and parents) and Main Team Organisation GmbH.

Students and their accompanying adults intending to participate in the Grand Final event acknowledge and agree to the terms and conditions outlined in this agreement.

1) BASIC CONDITIONS

- a. The Grand Final event is organized by Main Team Organisation GmbH, hereinafter referred to as “MTO” in this agreement.
- b. The parties to this Agreement are the accompanying adult (on behalf of the student) and MTO.
- c. The Grand Final is a fee-based program.
- d. The official language of communication and exams of the Grand Final program is English.

2) APPLICATION CONDITIONS

- a. The Grand Final is open to all students in grades 3 to 11, with no age-related restrictions.
- b. Individual participants (students) must be accompanied by an adult (parent, relative or teacher).
- c. Only the accompanying adult is authorized to submit applications on behalf of students.
- d. Only students who have taken any of the online MTO exams are eligible to apply for the Grand Final.
- e. Students who have taken the online MTO exams are not required to hold a specific achievement level to participate in the Grand Final.
- f. Students who were unable to attend the previous MTO online exams are required to take the paid Placement Test a certain time before the Grand Final in order to participate in the Grand Final. The outcome of the Placement Test will not revoke or otherwise affect eligibility for participation in the Grand Final.

3) VISA APPLICATION CONDITIONS

- a. Participants from countries that require a visa must comply with the Official Visa Application Conditions.
- b. Visa applications must be submitted to the consulates or official/authorized visa application centers of the country in which the Grand Final event is taking place.
- c. Students and their accompanying adult will receive an email containing the required supporting documents for the visa application process (including an information letter, invitation letter, daily schedule, hotel reservations, etc.).
- d. Applicants are responsible for submitting any additional documents requested by the relevant consulate. While consulates evaluate these documents, the visa decision primarily depends on the documents or consulate interview.
- e. Some consulates may ask for an original invitation letter. In such case, the group will be charged a postage fee of 150 €/$.

- f. Consulates may request a parental consent letter for students attending the Grand Final with the accompanying adult. The accompanying adult should consider that some parents may be separated or living abroad. The letter should allow the student to travel alone or with the accompanying adult if no parent is accompanying them. In addition consulate may require that both parents be present at the visa appointment at the same time, or that a legally authorized guardian with a notarized letter of consent be present on the visa appointment date.
- g. Students and their accompanying adult are responsible for obtaining visas, travel health insurance and covering other processing fees.

4) SERVICES INCLUDED IN THE PARTICIPATION FEE

- a. Upon arrival at the airport, the MTO team will meet the participants and arrange their transfer to the hotels. For transfer service, arrivals and departures are recommended between 05:00 - 17:00 (05 AM - 05:00 PM).
- b. Transfers will be arranged according to the nearest scheduled group transfer times and are not provided as individual services. Therefore, waiting times may occur.
- c. Reservations have been made at 3 or 4-star hotels.
- d. The participation fee includes breakfast only; lunch and dinner are not included.

1/6

- e. MTO will arrange hotel accommodations for the duration of the Grand Final.
- f. Accommodation assignments at the hotels will be made on taking into account the number of group members and availability of the room types. The hotel sequence is determined based on their booking conditions. Average reservation costs for the hotels are the same and do not affect the Grand Final participation fee.
- g. Accommodation details organized by MTO are provided at the end of this agreement.
- h. MTO will provide transfer services for the activities listed in the program. Transfers may be by private coach or public transportation, including buses, trams, metro and trains. Full details are provided at the end of this agreement.
- i. MTO will provide tickets for the paid activities included in the Grand Final program.
- j. Each participant will receive T-shirts to wear during the program. Wearing these T-shirts is mandatory for all participants throughout the event.
- k. City and hotel taxes are included in the participation fee.

5) CATEGORIES, CHALLENGES AND EXAM CONDITIONS

Information about all categories, challenges and exam conditions that students can participate in during the Grand Final is available at the following link: https://stemolympiad.org/grand_final/

6) ACCOMMODATION

- a. Accommodation during the Grand Final event will be in 3 or 4-star hotels.
- b. Hotel check-in starts after 17:00 (5 PM). Participants arriving early may wait at the hotel if there is enough space. Otherwise, they may need to wait at the airport.
- c. Students and their accompanying adults are required to share the same room and will be accommodated in either twin or double rooms. Students who wish to stay in a single room must pay an additional fee for the event period, subject to availability. Details are provided at the end of this agreement.
- d. If more than two persons accompany a student, a triple room may be arranged. In triple rooms (if available), the third bed may be a sofa or an extra bed, which may differ in comfort from the other two beds. If a triple room is not available at the hotel, a student in the individual group will have to share a room with a student from another group.
- e. Housekeeping in some hotels may not be provided daily during long-term stays, unless requested by the guest.
- f. Participants are required to fully comply with hotel rules and policies. If the fire alarm or automated emergency systems are triggered due to smoking, a matchstick fire, bath steam or other causes, a penalty fee of 1.500 €/€ to 3.000 €/€ will be charged for the services of police, medical teams and the fire brigade. These alarm systems are activated automatically and the room or corridor where the alarm was triggered can be easily identified. In such cases, the responsible individuals will be liable for the fine.
- g. If a participant is asked to leave his/her room at the hotel because of inappropriate behavior, MTO will not arrange alternative accommodation and the participant will need to make their own booking.
- h. Hotels have different room types depending on their own operating systems and building structures. There may be differences in size or certain technical details among these rooms. These differences do not affect the organization's pricing. Additionally, participants do not have the right to choose their rooms.
- i. The accompanying adult is responsible for ensuring that the rooms are used in an orderly and undamaged condition. The accompanying adult must inspect the rooms the evening before check-out and on the morning of check-out. Any damage caused to the hotel by a participant must be paid for by the accompanying adult prior to departure.
- j. If the hotel detects any damage or material loss after checkout, it will be reported to MTO within 3 days at the latest. The amount requested by the hotel based on this report will be charged to the accompanying adult and the students staying in the damaged room.

7) TERMS OF PARTICIPATION, CANCELLATION AND REFUND

- a. If an individual participant cancels their participation after paying the deposit fee, the deposit will not be refunded.
- b. If an individual participant cancels their participation after paying the remaining amount, the amount paid will not be refunded.
- c. If an individual participant cancels their participation in the optional tour program after paying the participation fee, the amount paid will not be refunded.
- d. If an individual participant who has been issued a visa decides not to participate, they will forfeit their deposit and cannot transfer their participation rights to another individual.
- e. The deposit amount paid will not be refunded if a visa cannot be obtained or if the visa application is rejected by the consulate. Visa rejections are based on the individual documents provided by students, parents or teachers and are evaluated solely by the consulate.
- f. If the government where the Grand Final is taking place closes its borders to all countries due to any unforeseen reasons, 50% of the total paid price will be refunded.

- g. If the government where the Grand Final is taking place closes entries from specific countries due to unforeseen reasons (high-risk regions), participants from these countries will receive a refund of 25% of the total paid amount.

8) DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE ACCOMPANYING ADULT

- a. This agreement appoints the accompanying adult as the only authorized and responsible person on behalf of the students.
- b. Before paying the deposit fee, the accompanying adult is advised to check with the consulate or an official/authorized visa center regarding appointment availability.
- c. The accompanying adult is required to coordinate the collection of documents requested by the consulate as well as flight reservations.
- d. Flight ticket dates must correspond with the program schedule. If no flights are available from any country on the specified dates, MTO must be contacted before issuing invitations.
- e. Flight tickets should be finalized once the visa results have been confirmed.
- f. During the Grand Final program, the accompanying adult must ensure that the student cooperates and interacts harmoniously with all other participants.
- g. The accompanying adult is responsible for any material or moral damages caused by the student at hotels, on public or private transportation, in science centers, museums or university campuses.
- h. The accompanying adult must remain with students at all times, taking full responsibility. This includes supervising breaks and accompanying students between their accommodation and event venues, as necessary.
- i. Participants and guests are strictly prohibited from collecting contact information from other MTO Grand Final participants, including students, parents or other supervisors, for the purpose of promoting, advertising or disseminating activities unrelated to the MTO Olympiads, both during their stay and after the event.

9) ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS

- a. All correspondence must be conducted via email.
- b. Flight days must correspond to the program schedule. MTO will not be able to provide additional accommodations or transportation for early arrivals or late departures.
- c. If the participants arrive late for any reason, no refunds or additional activity arrangements will be provided for the missed days. Upon arrival, the participants must transfer to the hotel on their own and resume the current part of the program.
- d. Students and accompanying adults must comply with the schedule stated in the program. Late groups or students must arrange their own transportation to the relevant part of the program.
- e. The breakfast concept, including its menu and the designated breakfast area for olympiad groups, may differ from the hotel's regular breakfast service and may vary depending on the hotel's capacity and the size of the participating group. Furthermore, breakfast culture differs from country to country (American breakfast buffet, continental breakfast, etc).
- f. Lunches and dinners are not included in the program fee. The average cost is 30-40 €/ $ per meal.
- g. If planned outdoor activities (such as amusement parks, outdoor programs or free time) cannot take place due to weather conditions, alternative indoor arrangements will be sought where possible. However, paid activities such as amusement parks cannot be cancelled, are non-refundable and cannot be replaced with alternative paid programs.
- h. Complaints, if any, must be raised promptly, either at the time of the issue or by the following day, to allow for timely resolution.
- i. MTO may take photos and videos during the program, which may be used for publicity and promotional purposes on social media, YouTube and the official websites.
- j. MTO bears no liability for any loss, damage, illness or injury, except where required by law.
- k. After arriving at the Grand Final, all participants must depart before their visa expires. Participants who overstay may be subject to fines, imprisonment or bans from entering the host country. MTO reserves the right to take appropriate legal action if participants fail to return to their home countries, in accordance with applicable laws.
- l. All participants are responsible for arranging their own SIM cards (physical or eSIM) and internet services during the Grand Final, including international roaming or prepaid options. MTO will not provide support or services in this regard.
- m. To avoid confusion on stage during the award ceremony and to ensure that each country's flag is visible, the flags to be used may be no larger than 50 × 70 cm. Larger flag sizes will definitely not be allowed on the stage.
